APEIRON'S CLIMATE SOLUTIONS

DIRECT FIRED HEATHERS | INDIRECT FIRED HEATERS

Cleaner Options For Climate Control Efficiency

Our direct and indirect fired heaters enable your year round industrial operations with minimal fuel consumption and environmental impact. While words like energy and heat can often bring to mind images of pollution, APEIRON Energy provides cleaner and safer powered options.

Whether it be agriculture or event planning, crop drying or crisis management, our products are engineered to meet the tough demands of the various industries and markets they've been introduced in.

The Direct Fired Heaters

Our exceptionally efficient direct-fired heaters reduce fuel consumption and costs by enabling a 100% thermal efficiency rate. Dynamically productive and highly innovative, these heaters are able automate temperature adjustments based on sensor feedback to keep temperatures stable without being wasteful. Any room for human error or negligence is removed from the system, and operations thus become exponentially safer and heat production vastly more efficient.

The Indirect Fired Heaters

The indirect fired heaters produce 100% clean and dry air, making them ideal for placement in offices, schools, specific event spaces, or pollution sensitive agricultural processes. The heat and energy-efficient unit is able to reheat air through a recirculation process that is safer and allows for flexibility in use. These indirect fired heaters have a robust set of easy to use features that enable quick operation and easy maintenance in all the industrial applications the heaters are intended for. For example, the unit is smaller than average, while maintaining output, which makes it more possible to move the unit around the facility as needs change without compromising heat efficiency.
